Application Process

1. Apply online in one of three ways: our institutional application (admissions.fsu.edu/undergradapp), The Common Application (commonapp.org), or the Coalition application (mycoalition.org). Students should submit only one application.

2. Create your Self-reported Student Academic Record (SSAR) at admissions.fsu.edu/freshman/ssar using your official high school transcript. To learn more about the SSAR, view our FAQ and how-to videos at admissions.fsu.edu/freshman/ssar/videos.

3. Submit the following items on the Application Status Check (admissions.fsu.edu/StatusCheck) by the application deadline:
   - Self-report all ACT and/or SAT test scores.
   - Link your SSAR by copying the 32-character code from your SSAR account.
   - Choose one essay question at admissions.fsu.edu/freshman/#essay and upload your essay.
   - Upload one résumé.
   - Complete the Residency Declaration for tuition purposes form found at admissions.fsu.edu/residency.

4. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) found at fafsa.gov using the IRS Data-Retrival Tool. The FAFSA should be submitted no later than December 1 for priority consideration for financial aid.

Contact the academic department directly if you plan to major in dance, film (animation or production), music, or theatre.

Log in to the Application Status Check regularly at admissions.fsu.edu/StatusCheck to monitor the status of your application.

Financial Assistance

Florida State offers admission to students on a need-blind basis. Your ability to pay has no bearing on our admissions decision. We encourage all prospective students to apply for financial aid by completing the 2019–2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA may be completed online at fafsa.gov beginning in October and should be submitted no later than December 1 for priority consideration. Students can use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to complete their FAFSA. More information regarding the FAFSA can be found at studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa.

Scholarships

High achieving students may be eligible for one of our merit-based scholarships or out-of-state tuition waivers, regardless of financial circumstances. Students admitted in January will have priority consideration for our admissions scholarships. Detailed information about the University Freshman Scholarship, the Benacquisto Scholarship, and our tuition waivers can be found at admissions.fsu.edu/freshman/finances.

I’m excited about this location and how it will transform FSU’s dining experience and contribute to overall student success. Florida State University understands food and dining are critical to student achievement.

—Kyle Clark, Vice President for Finance and Administration

Along with Seminole Café and the Suwannee Room, “1851” has joined a roster of great places to eat on campus. Located in the Azalea residence hall, 1851 boasts menu items created specifically for the university. This 24,000-square-foot facility that features a storefront architectural style is home to five micro-restaurants. These eateries offer a wide variety of options from local providers and dishes that incorporate fresh ingredients and locally sourced foods. At 1851, diners will find an eclectic mix of trendy spaces suited for studying or socializing, which are conveniently located in the heart of campus on Jefferson Street. Visit seminoledining.com for more information.

Housing on Campus

University Housing promotes student success by providing environments that encourage engagement in both academics and leadership development. The staff, who live and work in the residence halls, encourage lifelong learning by promoting responsible citizenship, scholarship, appreciation of differences, wellness, and campus involvement. Eighty-five percent of first-year students choose to live on campus. Those who select this option typically transition successfully into college life making higher grades, completing more classes, and returning for their second year at higher rates than those who do not.

To complete a housing contract, students must be admitted to FSU. Students who submit a contract early will have the most flexibility in housing options. Visit housing.fsu.edu for complete details and to take a virtual tour.
Staying Active

FSU prioritizes total wellness, and we strongly encourage activities that promote lifelong health. Visit campusrec.fsu.edu for more information.

Enjoy the great outdoors in our own backyard. Located on scenic Lake Bradford, the “Rez” is an ideal place to get some R&R.

Join a pick-up game or IM league on one of FSU’s 29 outdoor fields & 24 sports courts

Innovation Hub

Florida State University’s new Innovation Hub is the result of a $2.5 million investment by the Provost to deepen FSU’s distinctive commitment to continuous innovation. Located at the heart of FSU’s campus, the Innovation Hub fills the first floor of the Louis Shores building.

The 14,000 square foot space is designed to support Design Thinking with the latest technologies: a Digital Fablab, Virtual Reality Lab, Hacker-space, and a variety of spaces and technologies for collaborative work supporting groups from two to 140. The Innovation Hub is supported by nineteen partner departments within the University. Visit innovation.fsu.edu for more information.
The #1 way students find employment is through the FSU Career Center.

For the past 11 years, Tracy Wright has ensured Netflix content is successfully delivered to its more than 100 million customers around the globe. Now, the $12 billion company has recognized Wright’s ability to develop talent—elevating her to the newly created director’s role of human resources business partner. “The team I support is a global team. The job is part coach and part mentor, [where she focuses on] ten core values. “The one that jumped out to me ... was integrity ... You speak your mind ... even though it may be controversial.”

The Jacksonville native credits an FSU summer school class in political science, marveling “that I could form my own thoughts and opinions about what’s happening in the world and not just follow in my family’s footsteps.” Wright also landed a part-time job in a Tallahassee music store that launched her career as a leader, and today she’s considered an integral part of Netflix’s success in helping women thrive in tech. Above all, she leads women to channel their passion—what she calls the secret sauce of success. “If you love what you do, you never work a day in your life.”

“Florida State means three things to me: confidence, community, and future. I am very appreciative of ... this university, which prepared me for forty-four years that have gone so well,” says Wendy Clark of her amazing career in marketing. Clark was named the new president and CEO of DDB North America, one of the world’s largest advertising agencies. In her previous position as a top marketing executive for Coca-Cola, Clark led groundbreaking campaigns in both national and international markets. She also served as senior vice president of advertising for AT&T, where she directed the most ambitious rebranding and advertising campaign in the company’s history. In 2007, she was inducted into the American Advertising Federation’s Advertising Hall of Achievement and was cited in AdAge magazine as “one of the most important women in marketing.”

“I like talking about my first job after college because it’s advice I offer to today’s grads. My first job was as a receptionist in an ad agency. I knew if I could just get in there I could prove myself, and within six months that’s what happened as I moved into the account team. The point is, never be above doing anything.”
Our Area . . .

Tallahassee is Florida’s lively capital city, situated in the rolling Red Hills of the state’s panhandle. The people are hospitable, the weather is gorgeous, and there’s more to do than you can imagine. Being a ‘Nole means being embraced by FSU as well as the wider community, which has an outstanding reputation for supporting students’ aspirations. We think Tallahassee is an amazing place to call home, and we can’t wait to share it with you!

Capital of Florida

Originally Tulwa-hassee, meaning Old Town, or Old Fields, Tallahassee became Florida’s capital in 1824.

Population

Tallahassee: 191,049
Leon County: 290,292

Tree City, USA

In 1992, the National Arbor Foundation designated Tallahassee a Tree City.

Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium

With its phenomenal game-day atmosphere and cheering crowds, this is one of the best places in the country to enjoy college football, plus you’ll be seeing the DeVoe L. Moore University Center Complex, the largest, continuous brick structure in the United States.

Wakulla Springs State Park

This enchanted spring is just seventeen miles from FSU and is one of the largest, deepest freshwater springs in the world.

St. Mark’s Wildlife Refuge

Established in 1931, St. Mark’s is spread along forty-three miles of northwest Florida Gulf Coast and encompasses more than 70,000 acres.

And while you're visiting, consider . . .

- Hitting the trail on one of “Tallahassee’s” finest paths or loops.
- Meandering down one of Tally’s nine designated canopy roads.
- Shopping and dining in our Midtown area, chock-full of fun, independent stores and restaurants.
- Making the short drive to the Gulf of Mexico’s beautiful beaches.
- Gaining an historic perspective at one of our many museums or historic sites.
- Taking in the festive atmosphere at Railroad Square Art Park on a First Friday.
- Watching the live music (or the clouds) from a blanket in Cascades Park.
- Zipping through the canopy on one of Tallahassee Museum’s Tree-to-Tree Adventures. This amazing woodland site offers fifty-two acres and a window to our region’s environmental and cultural history.
- Grabbing a seafood smörgåsbord at one of our local purveyors of fresh-off-the-boat fish.
- Shopping and eating in College Town just minutes from FSU’s campus, where you’ll find boutique shopping and unique dining.
